

JANUARY EDITION
SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

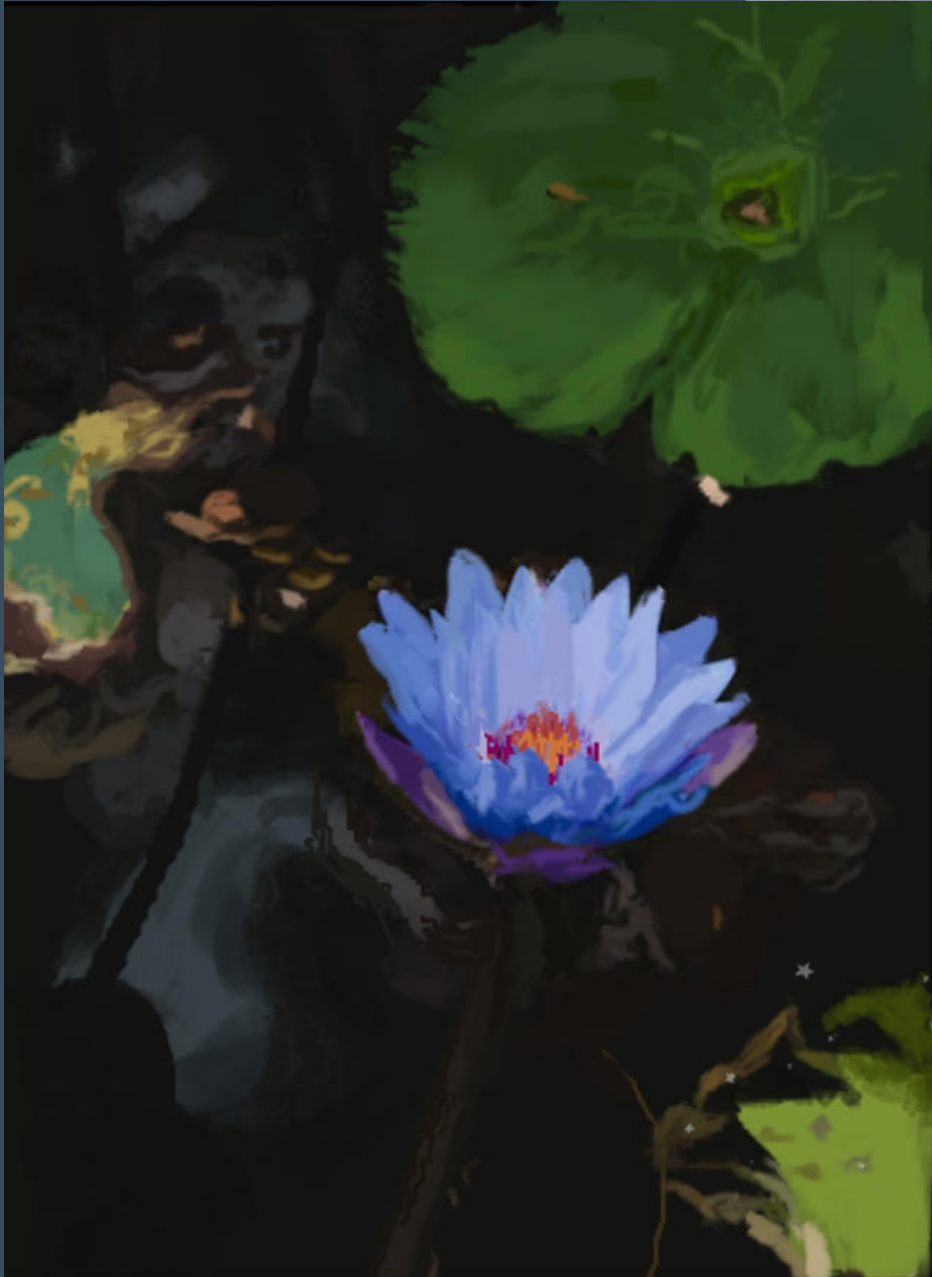

Whispers of

LANDSCAPE

STUDY IN FLORA

This was a study I did on MS Paint with my mouse a few months back when I wanted to wind down. The photo was taken by a friend and I loved the serenity of it enough to make a study of it.

PUPPETEERING THE SELF

I drew this on paper when I felt like there were two sides of me warring for control- the artist and the vain creative. A lot of my artistic urges feel like they come from my vain self trying to puppet the "artist" me around for praise- which is what the drawing is about.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Madhupee Bhaumik

I create art in multiple mediums (traditional, photography, music, dance, poetry, writing, the likes) and have been doing so since I can remember. I find art to be the central point to my journey towards the discovery of myself and the world I inhabit - essentially my art is a simple way for me to exist as I am. Without that, I would have a very staggered and incomplete identity.

A TREE OLDER THAN MEMORY

On the ghats of Orchha stands this tree, believed to have existed since the era of the Mahabharata, rooted in faith, memory, and the quiet continuity of place. Painted live on location in watercolor, the artwork was created in a brief, instinctive span of time, allowing the movement of light, air, and atmosphere to guide each stroke. The scene carries the weight of centuries with historic structures echoing rituals, the stillness of the ghat holding everyday life, and spreading branches guarding stories that have outlived generations. In its own sense, the live painting becomes less about detail and more about presence standing still with the landscape as time flows gently around it.

ARTIST

Kanak Mehra

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

SOLRISE

Solrise shows a girl standing by the ocean at sunset. Her black dress slowly turns into bright sunflowers, which represent growth and positivity. It shows that even after dark times, we can rise and bloom into something beautiful. The sunset symbolizes hope and a new beginning.

ARTIST

Shreya Verma

 @artios_4637

I create art inspired by emotions, friendships, and everyday life. I love turning simple moments into meaningful expressions through colors and movement. My work reflects creativity, honesty, and growth. Through art, I express who I am and share the feelings that words sometimes cannot explain.

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

NATURE'S MANDALA

This artwork portrays a majestic peacock formed through intricate mandala patterns, symbolizing harmony between wildlife and the natural landscape. Each carefully detailed motif reflects balance, rhythm, and the quiet symmetry found in nature. The monochrome design enhances the depth of texture and movement, drawing attention to the elegance within every feather. Nature's Mandala captures the essence of serenity and cultural artistry, presenting nature not merely as a setting, but as a beautifully structured masterpiece in itself.

ARTIST
Riya Kapoor

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

FLOATING WISHES

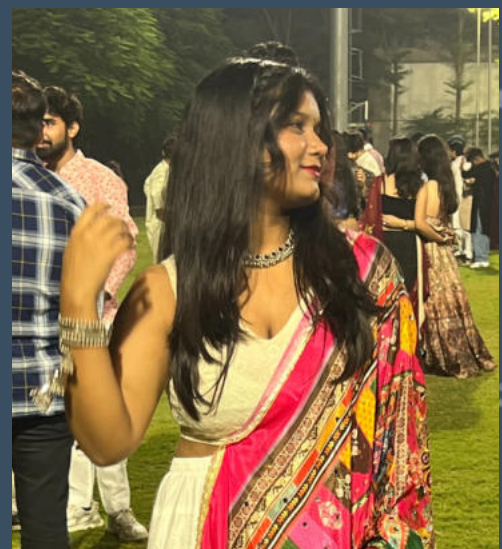

This artwork captures a serene night featuring numerous warm, golden lanterns floating up into a deep, gradient sky of purple and blue. The lanterns cast soft, shimmering reflections on the water, which is painted in rich blue tones, enhancing the magical and tranquil atmosphere. A small, dark silhouette of a boat is visible on the water, providing a sense of scale and peaceful seclusion. The overall effect evokes a sense of hope and celebration, reminiscent of a lantern festival.

ARTIST

Chahat Gautam

I am a monochrome artist who works primarily with charcoal and ink. My art blends realism with subtle surreal elements, focusing on themes of identity, emotion, and inner reflection. Through strong contrasts and detailed line work, I create visually striking compositions that invite viewers to interpret their own meaning within each piece.

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

WHISPERING FLIGHT

Set beneath a crescent moon, a lone bird takes flight through a softened sky, framed by fading light and quiet shadows. The silhouetted flora leans gently, as if listening. This piece speaks of fragile freedom, silent hope, and the courage to move forward even in stillness.

WHERE THE LIGHT FINDS ME

Framed by dark, rugged edges, a glowing sunset spills warmth into the open sea. The contrast between shadow and color speaks of finding hope even when surrounded by uncertainty. The birds in flight symbolize freedom, resilience, and the quiet courage to move forward toward the light.

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

WHERE STILLNESS SINGS

ARTIST

Hrishit Vats

This sketch beautifully presents the theme “Landscape” through a peaceful rainy scene viewed from a window. The rainy outdoors creates a calm and serene atmosphere, while the guitar and cup inside add warmth and emotion.

It portrays landscape not only as scenery, but as an experience that connects nature with human emotions.

THE SHAPE OF COMFORT

A soft pencil sketch capturing a quiet embrace, where emotions speak louder than words. The closed eyes and gentle hold reflect comfort, trust, and the feeling of being truly safe in someone’s arms. This artwork represents warmth, connection, and the calm that comes from simply being understood.

ARTIST- Vidushi Garg

I am an artist who finds meaning in quiet moments and unspoken emotions. Through simple lines and subtle details, I try to capture feelings like comfort, connection, and warmth—moments that often go unnoticed but stay with us the longest.

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

AUTUMN GLOW

The painting captures the bright, warm colors of the season sitting still against a pale sky. Bold dark trunks anchor the scene, making the fiery reds and oranges of the leaves really stand out. It feels like a crisp afternoon by the water's edge, where the trees are heavy with color and everything is peaceful.

ARTIST

Tanishka Gupta

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

WHISPERS OF THE SHORE

I painted this during a time when I was craving quiet more than clarity. Life felt overwhelming, and I longed for stillness not escape, but space to breathe. The sea, in its calmest form, became my refuge. I chose soft blues and a gentle horizon because I didn't want drama; I wanted peace. I wanted the kind of view that feels like a deep exhale.

GLOW IN THE SILENCE

This piece was born from a quiet struggle, a phase where uncertainty felt heavier than usual. Instead of painting the darkness, I chose to paint what survives within it.

ARTIST

JIA JAIN

@jammy_draws

@art.jammyj

SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

5 POINT PERSPECTIVE

This sketch shows a bedroom drawn from a first-person perspective. The wide-angle view slightly curves the walls and floor, creating a subtle distortion.

An unmade bed with scattered books sits at the center of the room. A desk, wardrobe, windows, and doors add depth and structure to the space.

ARTIST

Usnik Mondal

 @usk_otsutsuki

I'm Usnik, a self-taught artist who finds expression through ink, line, and silence. My work draws inspiration from manga, architecture, and moments of stillness exploring the emotions hidden between form and shadow. Whether it's the chaos of Berserk, the introspection of Vagabond, or the quiet geometry of a temple, I aim to capture feeling through texture and contrast.

JANUARY EDITION
SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

SEE YOU NEXT MONTH!

@SILHOUETTE_BU

EDITED BY:
KANAK MEHRA
HRIDAY THAKUR

JANUARY EDITION
SILHOUETTE NEWSLETTER

Whispers of

LANDSCAPE

